SLIGHT RAINFALL.
Small Shower This Morning—Cooler Weather.

The weather bureau again promises cooler weather after the present period of mildness is over.

Today's forecast is "generally fair and cooler tonight and Saturday. Today's maximum up to noon was 55 and the minimum 57, both below last week's average. The wind today has been southeast blowing five miles an hour. This morning rain amounted to six-hundredths of an inch.

ON LAST ROUND.
Final Argument in Parker-Hughes Case Saturday.

The arguments in the Parker-Hughes mandamus case will be heard by the supreme court tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock.

It is expected that the case will be closed by noon. It will be about a week, it is supposed, before a decision is handed down. The attorneys for Albert Parker have prepared an exhaustive brief which is now in the hands of the printer and which will be submitted to the court tomorrow. Col. Hughes' attorneys are preparing a brief and it will be in the hands of the printer today.

HORSE THIEVES AT WORK.
F. A. Studer of 1517 North Quincy a Victim.

Horstheives were at work on the north side of the river last night and a horse, buggy and harness are missing as the result.

The stolen property belonged to F. A. Studer who lives at 1517 North Quincy street. The horse, buggy and harness were taken from the barn during the night and no trace of them had been found.

Coughs and colds, down to the very borderland of consumption, yield to the soothing, healing influence of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

COL. HOPKINS DEAD.
Was Inmate of Libby Prison and a Gallant Soldier.

New York, May 10.—Col. Robert Emmett Hopkins is dead at his home in Tarrytown, N. Y. He was 68 years of age.

Colonel Hopkins was born in Pompey, Onondaga county, N. Y., on March 1833. In 1861 he was appointed under sheriff of Onondaga county. He resigned that office in 1862, in order to recruit a company of volunteers for the 149th New York infantry. He received a commission as captain and saw service with the Army of the Potomac for two years. He was captured by the Confederates at the battle of Chancellorsville, and was incarcerated in Libby prison. He was freed by an exchange of prisoners and returning to the service was soon afterward commissioned as the major of the 149th.

Coughs and colds, down to the very borderland of consumption, yield to the soothing, healing influence of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.
